

70 of the Best Pain Management Physicians in America

Chicago—Becker's Orthopedic & Spine Review and Becker's ASC Review recently released the "70 of the Best Pain Management Physicians in America" list and Vijay Singh, MD, medical director for Spine Pain Diagnostics Associates in Niagara, Wis., was included among the top physicians in his field. Members of the list were selected for their leadership in prestigious organizations and their immense contributions to the field of pain management.

The list was created through staff research and recommendations from around the country before being vetted through some of the most well-respected pain management physicians in America. Physicians included on the list were trained at great medical schools and often completed fellowships in their field.

Physicians do not pay and cannot pay to be selected as a best physician on this list.
